Forecast For Southwest England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Friday 30 Jul 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Showers mainly to the west overnight but clearer elsewhere.

This Evening and Tonight:
Daytime showers easing overall but lingering in the west, leaving clearer spells for most. Winds continue to ease heading into the evening. Further showers continue overnight in the west. Minimum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Saturday:
Cloudy start to the day with showers, occasionally heavy, continuing and some sunny intervals through the afternoon. Turning drier by the evening and skies become clearer. Maximum temperature 21 deg C (70 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
Sunny spells with local heavy showers may develop on Sunday, feeling cooler. Scattered showers are likely heading into next week, becoming more frequent on Tuesday. Feeler cooler once again.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.